RE: v.

NJ Case ID:

Docket Number:

Dear ,

On _____, a child and/or alimony support order was established directing _____ to pay $ _____ effective _____. _____ in this matter has represented that child or spousal support payments were made directly to you after the effective date of your court order which is _____. Documentation of these payments is attached. _____ is requesting the account be credited in the amount of $ _____.

Only direct payments made from the effective date of the order can be credited. If you dispute this amount, please provide supporting documentation, or contact Customer Service at 1-877-NJKiDS1 (655-4371). A Status Review Hearing may be scheduled if we cannot resolve any discrepancies between the parties.

Please note that from this point forward you must not accept any direct payments from _____, as these payments will be viewed as a violation of the court's order. If you agree with the above amount, please complete the statement below and return it to the address above. If you do not respond to this letter within 10 business days of its receipt, your child support account will be credited with the amount listed above and any child support judgment entered as a result of direct payments not credited to the account will be vacated.

Sincerely,

Custodial Parent _____

Non-custodial Parent _____
